

1 April 2016

Caution Notice

We hereby unequivocally state that Shiv Nadar University does not authorize any agent or organization to represent the University. All aspirants are cautioned against dealing with such people.

Also, Shiv Nadar University does not have any management quota or paid seat for admission into the University. There is only one merit based selection process communicated on the website that every aspirant has to earn their admission through. We do not entertain any exceptions to the declared criteria or attempts to influence the established process for any reason whatsoever.