

SHIV NADAR UNIVERSITY

15 April 2016

Workshop on “Big Data Analytics: Trends in Academics and Industry”

Big Data Analytics Center

Ground Floor, Seminar Hall, C021 (C-Block)

Is there any eligibility criterion to attend the workshop?

There is no eligibility criterion to attend the work. All the interested aspirants from academics, industry and / or any kind of job or organization can register and attend the workshop.

Who should attend the workshop?

The aim of the workshop is to motivate undergraduate, post-graduate students and industry freshers, who are looking their future career in the domain of data science and data analytics.

Is there any registration fee?

There is a nominal registration fee of INR 1000 for attending the workshop.

How to register for the workshop?

Please click the registration tab and download the registration form and follow the instructions for filling up the form. Send a scanned copy of demand draft and duly filled form through email address mentioned in the section “Contact US”. On 15 April 2016, at the registration desk please deposit your demand draft with the same name mentioned in the form and collect your registration kit with entry passes.

How to pay the registration fee?

Registration fee submission is through demand draft only. Demand Draft of INR 1000 in favor of “Shiv Nadar University” Payable at NOIDA.

Is it possible to interact with invited speakers and panel members?

Other than panel discussion, at tea break, lunch and high tea, workshop attendees can interact with invited speakers and panel members.

What is the last date for registration?

The last date for registration is 13 April 2016.

What if I miss to register through email before last date?

It is possible to register on 15 April 2016 directly at the workshop venue. Those who have registered on or before the last date of registration can avail the transport facility provided by university.

What if I am not able to attend the workshop after registration?

The registration fee is non-refundable and non-transferable. In case if you are participating for the challenge and your team win the prize then a separate communication will be done with the team leader.

How to commute to Shiv Nadar University?

A return transport will be provided to all registered participants of the workshop. It is important to sign-up to avail the university transport to commute at the time of registration. The transport will be provided will be provided from Sec 16 metro station (in front of HCL office) Noida to SNU via Pari Chowk. In case if you decide to travel on your own then all the details can be found on university's web page.

How we will identify the transport vehicle at Sec 16 Metro Station?

Once the registration is done through email, we will send an email with confirmation and all the details to all the participants.

Whom should I contact if I have more questions?

For more enquiries and details, you can reach directly through email at the following email address.

Contact US

Ms. Saritha Rajan, EA to the HOD

Big Data Analytics Center

School of Natural Sciences

Shiv Nadar University

NH-91, Teshil Dadri

District Gautam Buddha Nagar, UP 201314, India.

Email: saritha.rajan@snu.edu.in

Telephone: +91 120 3819 100