Nancy Powell US Ambassador to India visited Shiv Nadar University on 2 August 2013. Mr. Shiv Nadar, Founder HCL and Shiv Nadar Foundation welcomed her to the University. Roshni Nadar, CEO and Executive Director, HCL Corporation & Trustee, Shiv Nadar Foundation, Shikhar Malhotra, Trustee Shiv Nadar Foundation and CEO Shiv Nadar School and TSR Subramanian, Chancellor, Shiv Nadar University & Trustee Shiv Nadar Foundation also graced the occasion.

TSR Subramanian, Chancellor, Shiv Nadar University expressing his pleasure in welcoming Ms. Powell said, “We are honored that Ms. Powell took time out for this visit today and spent time interacting with the students. Ms. Powell’s visit is a great source of inspiration for the young minds at the university.”

Addressing students at SNU, Nancy Powell, US Ambassador to India, said, “Institutions like Shiv Nadar University promote innovative and free thinking and respect diversity. Looking at the international partnerships that the University has with Institutions in US is a good example of collaboration and can further deepen Indo US ties in higher education. She added that Indo-US relations have a long history and both the countries need to come closer to work on issues like bilateral trade, global problems by narrowing the difference of opinions and security threats looming in the region as well as the world. Ms Powell also answered questions posed by the students on issues like priorities for Indo-US relations, qualities that define a good leader and the role of education in a developing country like India.”
Mr Shikhar, CEO Shiv Nadar School and Trustee Shiv Nadar Foundation delivered the vote of thanks and said, “We are highly inspired by the visit of Ms. Nancy Powell, US Ambassador to the Shiv Nadar University.”
