

Use of Multiple Learning Models in the Chemistry Classroom at Shiv Nadar University: Dr Sunanda Sukumar, Associate Professor

Dr. Sunanda Sukumar, Associate Professor, Department of Chemistry recently has been declared winner of poster presentation at the FICCI Higher Education Summit 2013. Dr. Sunanda's poster, 'Use of Multiple Learning Models in the Chemistry Classroom at Shiv Nadar University' was selected for the award on the theme 'Practices and Approaches in the use of online/blended learning to raise the quality of Higher Education'. Many institutes of higher learning participated in the various events held during November 13-14, 2013 at New Delhi.

To know more about Dr. Sunanda Sukumar,

http://www.snu.edu.in/naturalsciences/Sunanda_Sukumar_profile.aspx

Planning Commission
Government of India

Ministry of Human Resource Development
Government of India

FICCI HIGHER EDUCATION SUMMIT 2013

*Building Networks for Transforming Indian Higher Education
'Enabling to Deliver Value'*

November 13th -14th 2013, FICCI Federation House, New Delhi

This is to certify

Ms Sumanda Sukuman, Shri. Nadar University

as Winner of Poster Presentation on the theme

"Practices and Approaches in the use of online/blended learning to raise quality of Higher Education"

Dr A Didar Singh
Secretary General
FICCI

Dr Usha M Munshi
Head, Information Division
IPR

Brig R S Grewal
Former Vice-Chancellor
Chitkara University

Mr Lokesh Mehra
Director
Education Advocacy, Microsoft