Theatre for Education and Social Transformation (T.E.S.T) is an academic programme offered at Shiv Nadar University, a private university located in Uttar Pradesh, India. It is known for its commitment to fostering educational and social change through theatre and performance. The programme aims to prepare students for careers in education, social work, and other fields that require transformative practices and creative expression. The following text provides information about the programme's objectives, target audience, and application process.

What is T.E.S.T?
- T.E.S.T aims to train individuals to become Theatre for Education and Social Transformation (T.E.S.T) practitioners who can use theatre as a tool for learning, teaching, and social change.
- It offers a 1-year, part-time programme starting in June 2015.
- The programme is designed to equip students with skills in teaching, facilitation, and performance, with a strong emphasis on practical application.
- It includes a curriculum that covers a range of scenarios and settings, preparing students for diverse professional environments.
- The programme is accessible to those with a background in theatre, education, or related fields, as well as to those looking to develop new skills in this area.

Who is T.E.S.T for?
- Educators and teachers aiming to use drama as a teaching tool.
- Theatre practitioners seeking to use their skills for social transformation.
- Those interested in developing skills for community-based work.
- Art and education graduates.
- Corporate professionals and practitioners in the social sector.

What does T.E.S.T provide?
- Practical training to seamlessly integrate performance and teaching.
- Knowledge and skills to become change agents in the social sector.
- Preparation for diverse professional environments.
- Opportunities for networking and collaboration.

Structure

- Summer School: June 2015 / 12 full days / residential - SNU campus
- Winter School: December-January / full days
- 5 Weekends: 15 Saturdays: 3 hours / spread across the year
- June 2015: 12 full days / residential - SNU campus
- Summer School: 10 / 1 hour sessions

Admission

- Qualification: Bachelor's degree in any subject from a recognized university.
- Prior experience in theatre is not necessary but could be an advantage.

Application Process

1. An online form to be completed by the candidate.
2. A workshop for shortlisted candidates to evaluate their potential and commitment to discovering alternative and participatory ways of teaching and learning.

Contact

Shiv Nadar University www.snu.edu.in contact@teteast.edu@snu.edu.in