Shiv Nadar University (SNU) organized a conference on undergraduate education in India called “Enabling Pedagogies in Higher Education in India” on March 26th and 27th, 2015. Inaugurated by Nikhil Sinha (Founding Vice Chancellor, SNU), the conference was organized with the aim to discuss the ways of enhancing the quality of higher education in India and the challenges particular to learning and teaching practices at university level. It also discussed the practical lessons in using online technologies and how web resources reimagine the classroom space. The conference witnessed presence of Amarjeet Sinha (Additional Secretary, MHRD) as a Chief Guest.
The two-day conference organized with the support of funds from European Commission-E-QUAL project focused on topics for panel discussion such as – ‘Pedagogies for the imagination, thought experiments with knowledge’, ‘Ideas in higher education’, ‘Assessment and learning’, ‘Practical Pedagogies’, ‘Technologies of Pedagogies’, ‘Digital Learning’, ‘Pedagogies that travel’ and ‘The future of undergraduate education in India’.

The speakers in the conference were from across Indian and International universities which included Shiv Visvanathan (O.P Jindal University), Supurna Dasgupta, Priti Joshi (DU), Asim Siddqui (Ph.D candidate, Manipal Center for Philosophy and Humanities, Karnataka), Mary Webb (Professor, Kings College London), S Kumaresen and Usha Raman (University of Hyderabad), Jaideep Chatterjee, Aadya Kaktikar, Maya Rao and Tulika Chandra (SNU), Amit Sen (Professor, Xavier University Cincinnati), Shivali Tukdeo (NIAS Bangalore), Deepnanda Ray, Somak Mukherjee, Piyali Chakraborty and Arunasish Acharya (E-QUAL project team, Jadavpur University), Sunandita Ghosh, Sammya Mukhopadhyay and Sudipta Dey (Jadavpur University), Suman Luchach (BITS Pilani) and Gita Chadha (University of Mumbai).