Section 3: Basics to Get Ready for the Academics

3.1 Academics

Books for your academic programs are recommended by the respective course faculty. The central library facilitates various book stalls set up by vendors, from where you can purchase the recommended books at discounted rates. However you can also purchase the same from the market if you want.

To understand the detailed semester design and broad course structure, the student must carefully read the Undergraduate Handbook, http://snu.edu.in/pdf/Undergraduate-Student-Handbook-2015.pdf
Section 4: Essentials to Get Set for your Campus Life

4.1 Apparels and Accessories

The University does not recommend any specific dress code but it is expected that you are appropriately dressed for your class sessions and laboratory hours (as applicable). You are also advised to pack a few pair of formals in case you need to attend seminars/ business conferences as participants or volunteers.

For monsoon and winter seasons it is important that you are equipped with proper rain/winter gear. For the list of recommended items, please refer to Section 7 on pp.11.

4.2 Food

SNU has two large Dining Halls (DH 1 & 2) that are hygienic, well-furnished, well-equipped areas, uniquely blending living and learning. The DHs provide food for staff and students, and remain open on all working days, offering an assortment of Indian and International cuisines.

These dining areas provide a full spectrum of gastronomic delights and are well serviced by fully functional HACCP (Hazard Analysis and Critical Control Points) governed catering service providers. These are also supplemented by a food court in the main academic block.

The quality of food served on campus is closely monitored by the student-elected mess committee and the University administration.

The University has two well-known catering service providers on board,

Azure Hospitality Pvt. Ltd., an industry leader in hospitality and leisure services catering to food and beverage needs of the best business houses of Delhi as well as other premier educational Institutions. Besides the main meal comprising of vegetarian and non-vegetarian Indian food, there are kiosks that sell Chinese & Italian cuisines.

M/s ICS Food Pvt. Ltd. has been recently appointed for operating DH 1. ICS Food have been into service, providing quality food, hospitality & other related consultancy services to leading corporates houses and industrial workforce across six states for over three decades now.
Section 5: Health Facilities on Campus

Campus infirmary has permanent paramedic staff round the clock supported by a 24x7 ambulance stationed on campus. A general physician visits the facility every day from Monday to Saturday during the evening hours. The medical room on campus can cater to basic ailments and the students are referred to the empanelled hospital through SNU provided ambulance whenever it is medically advised.

In case of a medical emergency and to facilitate treatment, the University has a tie-up with a super speciality private hospital in Greater Noida, from where the visiting doctor on the campus hails.

Section 6: Logistics and Accommodation

6.1 Housing

At SNU we acknowledge the need for creating a microcosm on campus to adequately represent the diversity that characterizes India. Hostels at SNU are fully residential, state-of-the-art and gender segregated units, designed to create personal space while incorporating shared living. Your individual space comes with a bed, mattress, almirah with lock and key, chair, study table and individual LAN ports or Wi-Fi facility. All common areas in hostels are Wi-Fi enabled.

Besides, each hostel is provided with a pantry on the ground floor, equipped with microwave ovens and drinking water facilities with water coolers fitted with RO and purifiers. The rooms and washrooms are well-fitted and the ladies washrooms is built with feminine hygiene in mind.

The hostel has the latest equipment to make sure that the students' have an efficient in situ laundry system. Laundry operates at a fixed cost (₹1750/- for every semester for 5 months) and is mandatory for students to avail the service. Hostels are also equipped with solar water heaters, adequately backed by electricity for overcast days. The entire facility is maintained by professional housekeeping and maintenance agencies.

PARENTS SHALL NOT BE ALLOWED TO GO BEYOND THE RECEPTION AREAS OF THE HOSTELS.

Please note that, in the interest of creating an egalitarian institution, the hostel configuration is pre-decided and cannot be changed.

Section 8: Safety and Security on Campus

SNU campus is growing both in number of residents and infrastructure, thus, safety and security on campus is given utmost importance. The 286 acre campus has boundary walls with security guards deployed all along the campus for guarding and controlling ingress and egress. The security is deployed round the clock, throughout the year making it intense yet non-obtrusive and are well connected through a portable wireless system. Additionally, areas including the main gate, inner gate (operational area surrounded by green fencing) and hostel common areas are monitored by CCTV.

The Administration Department operates Campus Security and Safety including HSE (Health, Safety and Environment) and provides succour and relief in unplanned incidents even outside the campus radius. In addition to campus patrols, the University has many safety programs in place including HSE committee, a campus wide notification system for all concerned, for updates and whistle alert program besides walky-talkies and CCTV.

The campus has a three layer protection, namely—the Main Gate, Inner gate, and Hostel Entrances. All students must remain within the campus area at all times and carry a GATE PASS approved by the hostel warden whenever they need to leave campus premises.

Anti- Ragging Affidavit

The University gives paramount importance to safety and security of every student and follows a zero tolerance policy against Ragging. Any student found indulging in ragging or any related activity will be dealt with strictly. Please read the following carefully,

As per the directives issued by the Hon’ble Supreme Court of India and the University Grants Commission vide letter D.O. No. F.8-1/97 (CCP-II) dated July 7, 2001, RAGGING IS A COGNIZABLE AND PUNISHABLE OFFENCE.

It is mandatory for every student AND his/her parent/guardian to fill up and sign an affidavit (at the end of the UGC notification), available at http://snu.edu.in/pdf/Anti-Ragging-Affidavit.pdf. The students have to bring along the duly filled and signed affidavits on non-judicial stamps of denomination ₹ 10/- (Rupees Ten Only).

OR

The student can also access the affidavit online at https://www.antiragging.in/Site/Affidavits_registration_form.aspx. ‘After filling the form successfully, you will receive the Student's Anti Ragging Undertaking and the Parents Anti Ragging Undertaking in your Email. Please print both the Undertaking, sign them yourself, request your parents to read the details and sign their Undertaking. You need to present both these at the time of registration.

Please note,

- The affidavits have to be made separately for parents and students.
- The affidavits have to be typed on non-judicial stamps of denomination ₹ 10/-. If you do not find ₹ 10/- non-judicial stamp paper, a higher denomination is also fine.
- Both the affidavits have to be signed in the presence of the Oath Commissioner or Notary (available at every local court) and duly attested by them. You can find them in the complex of your local court.
- You are required to submit both the affidavits at the time of registration.

While signing, the student and parent/ guardian must be aware of the strict rules and punishment prescribed in case one indulges in Ragging and/or related activity actively or passively, in the act or abet the act of ragging. If found guilty of ragging and/or abetting ragging, he/she shall be proceeded against under these regulations or under any other penal law and such action would include but not limited to debarment or expulsion from the University.

Please note that these affidavits are compulsory for all the students at Shiv Nadar University for the academic year 2015-16.
