Admission to PhD program in Economics

The Department of Economics at the Shiv Nadar University would like to announce that admissions into the PhD program in Economics are now open for the 2020-21 academic year.

The Department of Economics at Shiv Nadar University, established in 2012, has quickly established its reputation as one of the leading centres of learning and research in the country. The department has an active research environment and the faculty members are committed to guiding and supporting doctoral candidates throughout their doctoral thesis. The expectation is that upon successfully completing the doctoral program, the candidates will be at the frontiers of their respective research fields and will contribute actively towards advancing the body of knowledge.

The areas of expertise of faculty members in the economics department include Macroeconomics, Microeconomic Theory, Applied Econometrics, Environmental Economics, International Trade, Mathematical Economics, Development Economics, Labour Economics, Health Economics, Economic Growth, Public Economics, Game Theory, Network Theory and Industrial Organization. The candidates admitted into the program are provided very generous assistantships for four years.

Please see the graduate prospectus of the department for further details.

Eligibility:

Minimum qualification for admission to the PhD programme is a Masters degree with 55% marks (in any discipline). The eligibility criteria mentioned above are minimum standards and applications not meeting the same will be summarily rejected.

The candidates will then be shortlisted for the final stage of the admission process on the basis of their application and academic record.

Short-listed candidates will be required to demonstrate their knowledge through a written test and an interview, anticipated to be held in the first week of August (exam date will be announced on department's website). Final selections will be based on past academic performance, written examination and interview.

Please note that not all candidates meeting the minimum eligibility criteria may be shortlisted.

Admission Process:

1. Applications for admission are to be made online. The online application form can be found on the university webpage. The last day for applying to the program is July 15, 2020. The application fee is INR 1200.
2. Applicants are shortlisted on the basis of the application. Please note that not all candidates meeting the minimum eligibility criteria may be shortlisted.
3. Shortlisted candidates will be given a written test and interview in August (date to be announced on the department's website). This year, we anticipate conducting the written exam and interview online.

Fees and Financial Assistance:

Detailed information about the fee structure and the nature of assistantships are available in the graduate prospectus.

All full time PhD students admitted into the program shall receive a fellowship consisting of 100% tuition fee waiver and 70% hostel fee waiver. The students shall receive a monthly stipend of ₹ 50,000 for first two years and of ₹ 55,000 for third and fourth year subject to satisfactory performance in the program evaluated continuously, and compliance with all university regulations.
